

Corporate Governance

Overview

This three-day program provides participants with opportunity to reflect on functions and mechanisms of organizational leadership and governance. The program highlights how governance relates to executive authority, direction, accountability, stewardship and control. The course approach is adaptable to suit enterprises of varying size or complexity.

Objective

To sharpen the knowledge and skills needed by senior managers, company secretaries and directors to effectively formulate and implement policies for steering an organization towards fulfilling its objectives.

Program Outline

Agency relationship,
Governance functions
Aligning stakeholder interests
Strategic direction and performance,
Financial oversight,
HR governance
IT Governance
Policy formulation,
Risk management,
Maintaining integrity and trust,
Executive compensation
Social responsibility and ethics
King III on corporate governance

Benefits

- A broad view for identifying ways for improvement
 - Insights for responding to changing stakeholder needs
 - Key techniques and mechanism for effective governance
 - Ideas for effective systems, policies, procedures and communication
 - Kit of indicators and tools for good governance
 - Improved overall organizational performance
-
- Price:
 - Duration:
 - Venue:

The course employs a mix of short lectures, lively interaction, and/or individual and group exercises.

For more information about registering for this course, please contact STA Performance International on info@staperformance.co.za, or +27110428837.